Playfields Need Work But Not This Year

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

Some Andover playfields are in poor condition and should be withdrawn from use, according to a survey and recommendations made by a specialist from the Middlesex Cooperative Extension service.

The report, given to the school committee, was reviewed this past week by town and school administrators and will be further examined by the Playfields Maintenance Advisory committee. The specialist will also submit a report on other town playfields, for a more complete review of the town's facilities.

Found in poor condition were the Andover High soccer field, the West Junior High playfields, and the varsity field hockey field at the high school.

The Sacred Heart fields in Shawsheen were recommended for use by the varsity soccer program, but are also in need of considerable work.

The Lovely field was given top rating by the specialist who pointed out that the field being, "the brightest spot in the program . . . is the usage of the field has been properly administered." He recommends the field be used only for varsity football, a policy already in effect by the school department.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, Supt. of Schools Kenneth R. Seifert and DPW Director Robert E. McQuade met to review the preliminary report this past week, and basically decided that nothing can be done this year. Following review of the recommendations and examination by the advisory committee, a program will be developed for inclusion in next year's budget planning.

The beginning of a school year today in Andover, meant a return to familiar territory for Mrs. Jeannine McNamara, new faculty member at South school. Mrs. McNamara, putting the finishing touches to greetings in her first grade classroom, was once a pupil at South.

YMCA Fall Program Offerings

A schedule of up-coming highlights is available at the YMCA office.

The Andover-North Andover YMCA Fall Term brochures will be mailed to all members of record by Sept. 4. Individuals who do not receive a folder may pick up one at the YMCA office, 165 Haverhill Street, Andover, after Sept. 10.

Registration for all YMCA members, Full Privilege, Basic and Affiliate starts at 9 a.m. Monday, Sept. 17. Registrations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Instrument Sale To Be Conducted

For the second year the Andover Orchestra Parents will conduct a used instrument sale to be held Sept. 15 from 9 - 1 at South Church.

This event provides an opportunity for people to sell that violin or clarinet or other instrument that is unused or outgrown. It also is a chance for the musician, particularly the beginning one, to find a reliable instrument at a good price. Again this year there will be professional appraisers who can estimate the value of the instruments and the cost of any repairs that may be needed.

At last year's sale fully half of the instruments which had been brought in on consignment found new owners. Proceeds will help finance a future trip for the orchestra.

Programs will be conducted for all ages, pre-school through Senior Citizen. Pre-school programs include gymnastics, ballet, tap dancing, cooking, crafts, puppets, gym classes, and swimming instruction. A Pre-school Play Group is also available three mornings a week during each ten week term.

Youth courses will include swimming instruction, teen night, Red Cross Water Safety Instructors Aide, springboard diving, gymnastics, Feeling Good, Activities, weight training, archery, outing club, disco dancing, horseshoes, table tennis, recreational games, YBA basketball, air rifle, macrame, model building, oil painting, horseback riding and cake decorating. Special activities for the Youth are the Saturday Morning Program, parent/child program, and junior volunteer program.

Girls will have the chance to participate in ballet, tap dancing, gymnastics, synchronized swimming, and skin care workshop.

Adult classes will include swimnastics, swim instruction, aerobic and endurance swim, Red Cross Advanced Lifesaving renewal, and YMCA Aquatic Safety. Fitness programs will cover Y's Way to Fitness, Healthy Back, Activities, fitness for skiing, weight training, and senior citizen fitness. Other programs will be CPR, disco dancing, table tennis, paddle tennis, horseback riding, bicycle jaunts, ceramics, climbing, oils and acrylics, and several workshops covering quilling, paper tole, pine cone decorations and appetizers.

Women's activities will include synchronized swimming, yoga, rhythmic fitness, candlepin bowling, crochet, knitting, desserts, basketweave for needlepointers, needlepoint club and skin care and glamour workshop.

Men's programs include informal basketball and volleyball as well as an in-house volleyball league.

Special events for the term range from sleep-ins to movies and parties to dances.

Town House Topics

McQuade Is Federation Director

Public Works Director Robert McQuade received the permission of selectmen Tuesday night to accept a position as director of the New England Water Pollution Control Federation.

The one-year term will require time commitment which, to some degree, will cut in to his time as DPW director, according to Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark. McQuade will have to attend meetings about 12 times during the year, Clark said, and would need $500 to $600 in travelling expenses.

Selectmen approved of McQuade's acceptance of the position on the grounds that it would both enhance his professional development and would reflect well on the town.

Donut Shop Litigation Threat Is Discussed

The board of selectmen met for an hour in executive session Tuesday night with Atty. William Tinti to discuss possible litigation against the town from either James Chongris or the Friends of Shawsheen Neighborhood Association concerning a proposed Dunkin Donut Shop in Shawsheen Square.

Chongris has received a building permit for the shop, and applied for a common victualler's license about two weeks ago. Public hearings on the license were held last Monday night.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said Friday that representatives of the Friends of Shawsheen informed him they would appeal the decision of Building Inspector William Miens to issue the building permit.

As of Tuesday afternoon, the no appeal had been filed with the community development department for scheduling on the agenda of the zoning board of appeals which must hear the appeal. Deadline for the October agenda was 4 p.m. Tuesday. The board meets once a month.

No Parking Zone Is Designated

Selectmen voted Tuesday night to designate another no parking zone on Main Street.

The new zone, on the west side of the street between Stevens Street and Railroad Ave., will be posted no parking. The zone was designated because parked cars there presented a clear traffic hazard, according to Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark.

Warrant Items, Sewer Connections On Agenda

Items for the October town meeting warrant will be on the agenda when selectmen meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room at Memorial Hall Library.

Also to be discussed will be approval of sewer connections for the proposed new GCA industrial building in Andover Technical Park in West Andover. GCA will be building in a new quadrant of the park and additional firms have expressed interest in locating in that section. The sewer connection will assist further industrial development in the area.

15 Drawn For Jury Duty

Selectmen chose the names of 15 Andover residents Tuesday night to be placed in the jury pool.

Those chosen were: Allen G. Strassel, 14 Elm Court; Miller D. Malcolm, 16 Porter St.; Stephanie M. Smith, 21 Cuba St.; John C. Hurlin, 29 Linda Road; J. Alan Holmes, 197 Highland Road; Marilyn F. Burns, 85 Central St.;

Robert M. Brodsky, 396 So. Main St.; Melpo Catone, 75 Harold Parker Road; Patrick J. Roche, Jr., 46 Wildwood Road; William F. Douty, Jr., 136 Salem St.; Margaret P. Schall, 22 Wildwood St.; Frank VanLaethem, 443 Lowell St.; Phyllis J. Ricker, 4 Locke St.; Warren E. Gosse, 93 Main St.; Frederick E. Snell, 7 Mercury Circle.

Alcohol, Drug Survey To Be Taken

This week Andover residents will receive a Drug and Alcohol Awareness Survey in the Fall catalogue of the Department of Community Services. The purpose of the survey is to determine community opinion concerning the use of drugs and alcohol by town residents.

The survey was developed by the Andover Task Force on Drug and Alcohol Awareness. Initiated by the League of Women Voters in response to community concerns, the Task Force is composed of residents, educators, students, and social service professionals. The Task Force has been meeting for several months.

Adult residents are urged to complete the questionnaire. Results will give direction to the Task Force on possible future action. This survey is for adults only; other questionnaires will be developed for students.

Completed surveys should be returned by Sept. 30, either in person or by mail, to The Andover Task Force on Drug and Alcohol Awareness, %The Department of Community Services, 36 Bartlett Street. Surveys may also be returned at the Department of Community Services registration.

Car Wash Saturday

The Andover Band Parents will sponsor a car wash on Saturday, Sept. 8 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the West Junior High School. Donation will be $1.50 per car.

The earnings from the car wash will be used to defray competition fees and other extra Band expenses throughout the coming year.

The first meeting of the Band Parents Association will be on Wednesday, Sept. 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the band room at the High School. Sign up sheets for help with band activities will be available. Films of previous bands will be shown and general procedures of the present band will be presented.

Washington Monument

The nation's first monument to George Washington was completed in 1827. The rugged 34-foot-high stone tower was erected in a single day by the citizens of Boonsboro, Maryland, 57 years before its Washington, D.C., counterpart. It still stands, according to Old Sturbridge Village, the living history museum in Sturbridge.

Some Problems Resolved

By Virginia Cole

Lots of you were cross at us last week and you had good reason to be.

We have been tracking down the reasons for the poor glass pick up and here is what we can all do to make it better. Put recyclables where they can plainly be seen, near your driveway but not mixed in with the trash bags. Green glass must be put in one container and brown in another. We get a better price that way. Double grocery bags are the easiest container but reuseable barrels and boxes may be used. They should be marked in large letters RECYCLABLE to keep the trash man from taking them. Even cardboard boxes must be marked as otherwise the recycler assumes they are trash, and passes them by.

Many of you did all those things and were still missed. Our regular driver was on vacation and the substitute made a lot of mistakes. We have complained to the company and expect better service next glass pick up.

I have some more Aluminum cans to watch for. It looks like different stores carry different sizes of beer and some are aluminum and some are tin. Your magnet won't pick up aluminum and that's what we want to recycle. Utica Club Light, Black Label, Pearl and some sizes of Old Milwaukee, Narragansett and Schaefer are sold in aluminum cans in Andover.

The Aluminum Drive on Sept. 29 will be held in three different locations from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. West Junior High parking lot to be convenient for West Andover people and especially soccer players; the parking lot at Faith Lutheran Church for those in south Andover and right behind Town Hall for the rest of us.

Many soft drink dispensers have all aluminum cans. If you work near one, how about collecting the cans and bringing them to us on Sept. 29? Lower the trash disposal cost for your company and lower the cost for your town too.

Gym Use Study Group Is Named

The appointment of a committee to study possible uses for Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium was approved Tuesday night by Selectmen, who limited the scope of the committee's work strictly to that outlined by town meeting.

Those appointed to the committee were: Tom Powers of the community services committee, Charles Wesson, former Finance committee member, Richard St. Amand of Ballardvale, Philip Salamone of Shawsheen, and Clifford Howe from the center of town.

Community Services Director Joan Pearson was appointed as an ex officio member.

The committee was charged by town meeting to present a report on possible uses for the gym for presentation at October town meeting.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark in the formal motion he presented to selectmen for approval, expanded the scope of the committee's work to studying all community services buildings "to more clearly determine how the requirements of the department can be met in the most economical manner."

Doug Mitchell objected to the motion as submitted by Clark, and selectmen voted not to expand the committee's work.

Mitchell's objections centered around the problems an outdoor recreation facilities committee ran into in 1972. That committee, he said, was supposed to review all buildings available for use by the community services department. They had to repeatedly refer back to the then recreation and community schools committee (community services committee today) for advice on the content of programs the department was running.

Rocketeers To Begin New Season

The Rocketeers Square Dance Club of Andover will begin their 20th season with a dance Saturday, Sept. 15 at West Elementary School, Andover. Featured are Don Hanhurst calling squares and Polly Floyd cueing rounds.

A beginners Square Dance class is scheduled to begin Friday, Sept. 14 and will continue every Friday throughout the season. Club caller, Dick Steele, will teach all beginners the basics of square dancing. All interested in learning square dancing are welcomed. Our Sept. 14 class is free to all. New this year is a Round Dance class, to begin Tuesday, Sept. 18, taught by Polly Floyd. Both the square dance and round dance classes will be held at West Elementary School at 7:45 to 10.

Beside regular monthly dances, other events include a New Years Eve dinner dance, and a 20th anniversary celebration. For further information contact Dick and Hannah Darling of Andover, presidents or Fred and Edna Morasse of Methuen, class chairman.

They had to know what the department wanted to do in the buildings in order to evaluate them.

Mitchell, who was chairman of the outdoor recreation facilities committee, said the two committees had to confer so often that they decided to merge and allow the review of buildings become the province of the community services department.

He said that the Cardinal Cushing study committee would probably run into the same problem if they expanded their work to reviewing all facilities. The community services committee according to Mitchell, would be best qualified to undertake such a study.

Clark said that town meeting had mandated three of the five committee positions with the other two to be filled by the town manager. The committee had to include two Shawsheen residents, and a member of the community services committee. The entire community services committee could not be appointed, Clark said, because they did not fulfill those town meeting specifications.

Selectman Norma Gammon supported the expanded duties of the committee because she did not see the value of studying one building without consideration for others "To me it's an absolute waste of time to do that one facility," she said.

Selectman James Abramson said that studying all community services facilities before the school building committee decides on the final building program, was also a waste. A complete review, he said, should wait for the schools, which are used by the community services department.

He then added that with a tax-capped budget, such a comprehensive study might be a waste of time anyway, because the town might not have the money to do anything about the recommendations coming from the report.

Abramson amended the motion to limit the scope of the committee's work and the board passed it three to two with Gammon and Selectman Susan T. Poore voting against it.

The first in the "Information, Please?" series will be held at The Haven this afternoon, Sept. 6, at 2 p.m. and will feature Lawrence General Hospital. The second in the series will be held Sept. 13 and will deal with prescription and non-prescription drugs.

If you waited to make your reservation for Chateau deVille and the Lawrence Welk gang, you waited too long. It's sold out!

Starting Sept. 10 at 8:30 a.m. you may "Exercise for Health" at The Haven under the watchful eye of nurse Rita Paulekas. It's free and will continue Monday mornings for ten weeks.

Jared Clark, Andover's town manager, will speak at The Haven Tuesday morning, Sept. 11, at 10 a.m. in The Haven's Know

Your Town program.

And on Wednesday mornings starting Sept. 12 there will be a diet workshop at 9:30. This program will cost an $8 registration fee plus $3 for each session you attend. Certified instructors will help you in a weight control program featuring diet and nutrition information, exercise and behavior modification. You may register at the first class. So if you've been having trouble getting rid of that excess poundage or after losing it have trouble keeping it from coming back, this is a marvelous opportunity.

Thursday, Sept. 13 at 10 a.m. "For Women Only" will present a program of "The American Woman and 200 years of Fashion." Informative and interesting, it promises to be a most pleasant morning at The Haven.

The afternoon of Sept. 12 The Haven Singers will again be entertaining at the Academy Manor Nursing Home under the expert direction of Helen Robinson.

You may play Bingo at The Haven every Friday afternoon at 2. If Bingo is your thing, here's your chance — and with your neighbors and friends. The hot lunch program has resumed at West Elementary School this week. Once again you are reminded you must call The Haven in advance if you expect them to be prepared to feed you, and also if you need transportation. The numbers are 475-3968 and 475-4165.

And while the weather is still gorgeous, have you thought of joining the group Sept.

MISS MIDDLESEX COUNTY 1978 OPENS DANCE STUDIO

NANCY CHIPPENDALE

Nancy Chippendale was crowned Miss Middlesex County 1978 with her fast-stepping tap dance to Duke Ellington's "It Don't Mean A Thing". This Miss America preliminary gave her the opportunity to compete in the Miss Massachusetts Pageant where she was a semi-finalist.

Winning pageants is not Ms. Chippendale's only accomplishment. She was the choreographer and producer for the 1979 Miss Middlesex County Pageant and the Miss Chelmsford Pageant. Her dance training also gave her the opportunity to tour with a dance company which led to her acceptance, after a private audition, to the famed Radio City Music Hall Rockettes. Her eleven years of dance training has made Nancy well versed in tap, jazz, ballet, hawaiian and tahitian. Ms. Chippendale's training can be credited to such well-known teachers as Roni Mahler, Fred Knecht, Ron Daniels and Danny Hactor preceded by original training and five years of student-teacher training with Vicki Jo Boyer.

After much hard work and dedication, Nancy is opening her own studio at the North Andover Grange Hall in the old center. She will be giving class and private instruction in tap, jazz, ballet, hawaiian and tahitian.

For registration or information, call 685-4605 anytime after 5:30. Classes will begin September 10.

Warrior Gridders Potentially Explosive

All Together

By Rick Harrison

The Andover High football team once again has the potential to be an extremely explosive outfit on offense, but the keys to the success of the 1979 season lie in the ability to develop both an offensive line and a solid defensive unit.

The Golden Warriors are coming off another outstanding year, 7-2-0 in the Merrimack Valley Conference and 7-3-0 overall, but the team was decimated by graduation.

AHS lost 27 seniors, and among the 11 returning lettermen there are just two offensive starters and three defensive starters from 1978.

The key graduates, according to Head Coach Dick Collins, were two-way lineman Len Driscoll (now at Bowdoin), wide receiver Paul Farnham (Brown), and quarterback-placekicker Manny Silva.

"We have speed to burn at a number of key positions this year," observed Collins, "and we may get to use it if we can find a few people to do the blocking up front."

Six at a time, the Golden Warriors football linemen attack the blocking sled practicing up for the coming season. The first home game for the team is Sept. 15.

"The experience is at split end and in the offensive backfield, but the offensive line is totally inexperienced at the varsity level," related Collins.

"If the defense becomes respectable and the offensive line comes around, we could be a very dangerous and potent team."

Warriors

Personnel

Collins and staff greeted 96 candidates for the opening day of double sessions August 27.

In that group were the two offensive starters, senior halfbacks Mel Berger (5'10", 170 pounds) and Dave Nardone (6'1", 190), who actually alternated last season while carrying plays in from the bench.

Nardone doubled as a defensive veteran, and this Fall he will shift from monster back to inside linebacker.

Junior middle guard Jim DePiano (6', 210) and senior end and Co-Capt. Bill Stahley (6'1", 198) complete the trio of defensive returnees.

Stahley, who alternated with Ray Lynch a year ago, is currently plagued by a recurring back injury and his availability this season is questionable.

"Whether or not we have Bill could be a big factor in our success or lack of it," commented Collins. "Right now I'd say he'll only be around for limited service."

Senior Co-Capt. Tom Walsh inherits the quarterback slot, but it won't be an entirely new experience for the 6-foot, 175-pounder.

Walsh was pressed into action early last season after Silva sustained a shoulder injury, and he responded nicely by leading the Golden Warriors to victory over Tewksbury.

Later in the campaign Silva re-injured the shoulder against Wilmington and, with time running out, Walsh entered for one play and tossed a game-winning 20-yard TD pass to Farnham to complete an impressive comeback.

Collins is extremely high on senior wide receiver Jim Lacourse (5'11", 170), who has been a standout in both pre-season scrimmages. Jim could put his name alongside the Farnhams and Glenn Verrette as the latest in a long line of

Whale Watch Planned

Whale watching has turned into the newest and most popular spectator sport in New England. Two more opportunities to observe the mammoth friendly animals who migrate through local waters are offered by the New England Aquarium this fall.

On Sunday, Sept. 23, and Sunday, Sept. 30, the curious and the enthusiastic will board the M/V Provincetown at Long Wharf for a full day of cruising toward Stellwagen Bank.

Aquarium staff members will be on board to identify and locate the humpback and finback whales who are headed South on their annual migration.

According to Ms. Jackie Buehler, coordinator for the whale watches, "whale sightings cannot be guaranteed but we have had much success the past two years and the chances are excellent to spot a number of whales in these nutrient enriched waters."

Most likely to be sighted are the large finback whales which reach a length of 60 feet. Playful humpbacks are also huge, sometimes as much as 45 feet in length. Other marine mammals observed on previous voyages are the minke and right whales, white-sided and white-beaked dolphins and the harbor porpoise.

The M/V Provincetown will depart Long Wharf at 8:30 a.m., returning, depending upon wind, whales and weather, at 4:30 p.m. Food and beverages may be purchased on board.

Student Library Cards Needed

Beginning Monday, Sept. 10, students may be requested to show their library cards in order to gain admittance to Memorial Hall Library.

"By doing this, we hope to assure space and assistance for all those students who really need our services", Nancy Jacobson, director of the library, stated in a letter to the principals of all schools in Andover. This policy was started last spring due to the very large number of students and the limited capacity of the Library.

World Facts & Figures

A recent addition to Memorial Hall

Library's reference collection is "World Facts & Figures" by Victor Showers. This book provides in-depth comparative coverage of the world's physical features, outstanding works of man, information on all 222 nations and 2045 important cities and tourist resorts. Many reference books provide current information about countries, cities and the world's geographic features yet most fail to put major facts into perspective or relate to one another. "World Facts & Figures" is a book of comparisons that makes thousands of facts more meaningful and useful.

Great Books Discussions Will Resume

The Great Books discussion Group will continue their discussion of "Becoming Human" this fall. Stories and plays in this collection depict the courage needed and the risks taken to understand and fulfill ourselves. The Group meets at Memorial Hall Library on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month at 7:30 p.m. under the leadership of Robert Rockwell. The first session will be held on September 25 when "Tonio Kroger" by Thomas Mann will be discussed. New members may join the group at any time. Further information may be obtained from Dorothy Sherrerd, Program Director of the Library.

Colleen Griggs, Accident Victim

Coleen Griggs, 20, an Andover High graduate who had attended West Point and Merrimack College, died in a motorcycle crash in Montana Friday.

She was the daughter of former Andover School Committee member Dr. Francis Griggs and his wife Barbara. The Griggs family moved last month from Andover to Bratt Road, Rexford, N. Y. Dr. Griggs, who has been teaching civil engineering at Merrimack College, recently joined the staff at Union College in Schenectady, N. Y.

Miss Griggs had been working for the National Park Service this summer in St. Mary, Montana, where the accident occurred. She had been planning on transferring to the University of Montana this fall.

As an honor student at Andover High School, she was then-Congressman Paul Tsongas' principal nominee to attend the U. S. Military Academy at West Point in 1977.

"She was very bright — filled with a great deal of vitality — and a great doer and a giver," said Andover School Superintendent Dr. Kenneth Seifert. "It's certainly a shock knowing the Griggs family, when you have a close knit family as they are."

Miss Griggs was the eldest of six children.

"They're a very strong family. They're taking it well under the circumstances. It's a big shock to them," said Rev. Frederick Collins of Andover after speaking to Dr. Griggs.

Rev. Collins is pastor of St. Robert Bellarmine Church in West Andover.

"She was very active in our youth groups, as a leader," he said. "She was also very active in the youth group to Merrimack College that went down to Apalachia to do social work."

Miss Griggs had spent the last year studying at Merrimack.

At Andover High she was also a high honor student and a member of the National Honor Society, the high school band, the track team, and the American Field Service.

She was born in Troy, N. Y. and had lived in Andover for 14 years.

Survivors include her parents, brothers Frank, James and Matthew, and sisters Linda and Mary, all now of Rexford, N. Y.; her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ann Sullivan of Troy, N. Y.; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

A funeral Mass was celebrated at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Immaculate Conception Church, Glenville, N. Y. Burial was in the Most Holy Redeemer Cemetery, in Niskyuana, N. Y.

Topsfield Fair To Have Flower Show

A flower show theme of "Norman Rockwell's America," will land added nostalgia to the many traditional touches at the 155th renewal of Topsfield Fair, Sept. 29-Oct. 8. The design section of the annual flower show, always a leading attraction at America's oldest continuous county fair, will feature five competitive classes on subjects immortalized by the late artist.

A Child's Birthday Party, Boy Scouts, Freedom of Worship, The Circus and Looking OUT to Sea, will be the subjects challenging exhibitors' artistic creativity in floral arranging. The competition is open to members of the sponsoring Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts.

New England championship horse and oxen pulling, a highlight of the Essex Agricultural Society's very first fair in 1818, along with such other hardy perennials as cattle, sheep goat and poultry shows, will vie with major professional stage shows, an American Indian festival and the first-ever pari-mutuel dog racing in the afternoon, for the attention of an expected 400,000 visitors during the 10-day exposition.

Duckweed

Duckweed, a single oval front that combines leaf and stem, is one of the more vigorous and nutritious of all plants. It grows on or just beneath the surface of fresh water. An acre of duckweed contains ten times as much protein as an acre of soybeans, Massachusetts Audubon tells us.

Why Religious Education?

Thoughtful parents know that many of the problems their children face cannot be answered by what is taught at school or learned at home. The church's responsibility is to create an environment where problems can be illuminated by the light of faith in a community of concern.

"Where will my child acquire the moral fiber to choose between compassion and self-interest?"

"How can we learn to defy the de-humanizing effects of technology?"

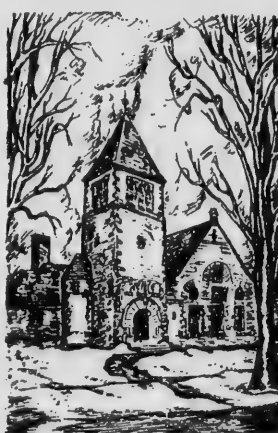

"How shall we match physical growth with inner strength and maturity to cope with drugs, sexual permissiveness, and material greed?"

"What equips men and women to form strong, constructive, and lasting relationships?"

"How can one make ready to conquer pain, frustration, or death?"

"What can I give my child that will enable him to face an uncertain world and to survive?"

Christ Church offers a professionally directed modern and comprehensive program of moral and religious training to children of the community from Pre-Kindergarten through High School. For information, call 475-0529, or send in the blank below.

Family Picnic At Church

The members and friends of the Ballardvale United Church will gather for morning worship at 9:30 this Sunday, Sept. 9. Immediately following the service everyone is invited to the Rolling Ridge Conference Center, 666 Great Pond Road in North Andover for a picnic.

A special treat is in store for those attending in that some of the children will be singing on the church steps and passing out flowers as people come to worship. At the picnic, the Education Task Force under the direction of Cheryl Campbell and Diane Ely will lead a Heiffer Project Fair. There will be games for the children to play for the cost of a few pennies which in turn will be sent to Heiffer Project.

Everyone is asked to bring their own food, drink, grills, and chairs to the picnic. Casual dress is appropriate for worship so we can go directly to the picnic grounds. Guests and visitors are welcome to attend. Contact Rev. Dave Hollenbeck for more information.

To Open Lay Ministry Seminary

South Church in Andover announces the establishment of the Andover Lay Ministry Seminary (ALMS), a ministry of South Church to all interested Christians. ALMS is offered as a three year program, beginning on Wednesday evening, Sept. 19 at 7:30, and is open to all as a tool to provide the opportunity for Christian growth in understanding and usefulness. The program may be taken of various levels, with three options available: audit, and thus take advantage of the program without a larger commitment; taking selected courses to provide enrichment to ministry or understanding; and participating in the three year program towards a certificate after passing six courses.

The Fall 1979 program includes two twelve week courses. Dr. Douglas Stuart, professor of Old Testament at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary will conduct a course in "Old Testament Introduction", an overview of the organization, themes and significance of the Old Testament. "Teaching God's Truths" is the second course offered for the fall term, and will be taught by Dr. Westy Egmont, pastor of South Church. It will present a philosophy of Christian Education and practical skills, helpful for those interested in teaching adults and children.

Future courses will include "New Testament Introduction", "Evangelism", "Life of Christ", "Visitation", "History of Israel", and "Peer Counseling". Registration for the program will be held at the first class on Sept. 16, or by calling the South Church office. Fees include and $8 course charge, plus the cost of the text.

Playfields

Clark said that while some of the fields should be pulled from use now, it was impossible, since there are no alternate sites to accommodate programs.

The new fields being developed at the former landfill site off Chandler road will not be ready until next fall.

If some alternate site were available, probably Sacred Heart could be pulled from use this fall. This would allow some work to be done and to allow grass and turf to develop there.

But there is no alternative field, therefore, the Shawsheen playfields will be continued in use.

The manager said that possibly, following a thorough review of the findings and recommendations, one or two fields can be worked on each year, including the installation of underground sprinkler systems to maintain a good playing surface.

The program would call for initiating a three-point program to include overseeding — a method of planting grass over grass to eliminate bare spots; development of a sod plot — growing sod to replace turf on town fields where necessary and aeration-top dressing program to properly maintain the fields in good condition.

The town did increase the budget for maintenance of playfields this year, the manager pointed out, but there is no estimate of cost to develop the recommended procedures as contained in the preliminary report received by the school committee last week.

The report by Ronald P. Athanas of the extension service was done under the direction of Athletic Director Richard Swift, at the urging of the school committee.

Athanas found the Andover High soccer field in need of complete renovation, being overrun with weeds and having very little turf. He recommended a complete renovation program and the field being taken out of use for a year.

The field is also used in the physical education program which results in the facility being overused, Athanas said.

A similar renovation program is recommended for the varsity field hockey field which is in need of being top dressed and reseeded. He found the field to be in a little better condition than the soccer field, probably due to its being out of service since last spring.

The varsity and jayvee baseball fields have some good grass and turf on the outfields, but the diamond portions of both fields are in poor condition, Athanas said. He recommends work on the fields, maintaining the fields for baseball only and prohibiting the use of the outfield area for football practice.

Found to be in the worst condition is the West Junior High fields, where the turf is in poor condition, and the elevation is a foot higher than the lowest point of the field. It is badly in need of proper drainage. The elevation problems may stem from tree roots decaying underneath the surface. He classifies the fields as being unsafe due to the hills and valleys.

West elementary field was found to be in fairly good condition and adaptable to all-purpose use.

The Sacred Heart field, in Athanas' opinion is the proper facility for soccer, due to correct length and width. "The field can be brought back to satisfactory condition. I recommend that you aerate top dress with loam, fertilize and lime, resod the area in front of the goals, and reseed the remaining area of the field," Athanas said.

As to use of the field for development of a skating rink, Athanas strongly advised against such thoughts.

Fall Lodge Funds Decision Doubtful

The ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

SEPTEMBER 6, 1979

By Tim Greene

Selectmen took no action Tuesday night on a request by the Community Service Committee to have an article inserted in the October town meeting warrant asking for funding to build a new Recreation Park lodge to replace the one which burned last summer.

Doug Mitchell, a member of the committee, presented the request to selectmen, citing three reasons that funding should be made in October. First, the facility was "sorely missed" by the community. Second, the department's budget assumed there would be revenues from the lodge, amounting to about $4000 annually. Third, the cost of building a new lodge continues to rise, the longer it takes to appropriate the money, the more it will cost in the end.

Mitchell said estimates by Lawrence architect Peter Samaris, who designed the new Rec Lodge proposed at Spring town meeting, put the cost of construction now at about $140,000. Funds requested at town meeting totalled $120,000.

About $55,000 from the sale of Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium and another $63,000 in insurance pay-offs from the fire the old lodge were to have been used for the new lodge. However, the sale of the gym was voted down by town meeting, and selectmen recommended against passing the rec lodge reconstruction funds without the proceeds from that sale. Town meeting heeded the board's advice and voted against funding for a new lodge.

The insurance funds have now passed into the town's free cash accounts.

Selectmen and Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark favored rebuilding the lodge, but not now. Clark said the facility was valuable because it provided an inexpensive place for large groups of residents to meet. However, he said, he thought it would be better to wait until Spring town meeting when a comprehensive study of all the town's recreational facilities will be completed. The study would indicate if the functions of Rec Lodge might be met by other existing facilities.

Selectman Susan T. Poore pointed out that those other facilities included the schools, which are now under study for renovation. Since the kinds of facilities the schools will offer are not known, and probably will not be known until after 1980 town meeting, the comprehensive review should wait, said Poore.

Selectman Norma Gammon agreed that the comprehensive review of community services facilities should come in before the decision of Rec Lodge is made.

Selectman James Abramson also favored rebuilding the lodge. He said the insurance money received by the town for the lodge should be earmarked for reconstruction purposes. It should be taken out of free cash when the time comes to rebuild, he said. The entire sum should not be raised from taxation just because the insurance money has gone into the town coffers. The balance of the sum would come from other sources.

Community Services Director Joan Pearson said the cost of reconstruction would increase another $20,000 by spring and continue to rise after then.

Abramson pointed out that Pearson was talking about inflated dollars and that unless construction costs increased faster than the inflation rate, no real-dollar change would occur.

Fall Meeting Could Be Dropped

After a review of warrant articles proposed for October town meeting, selectmen considered inserting an article which would allow them to call off the annual fall special town meeting if they wanted to.

No formal motion was made on the proposal.

The matter came up after articles proposed for the fall warrant had been read by the board.

Selectman Norma Gammon said, "It seems a waste of money to go to October town meeting with what we have here."

Selectman Susan T. Poore agreed and suggested a warrant article calling for a bylaw change which would make the holding of special town meetings a decision of the board.

Poore pointed out that the printing of the warrant would cost $3000 and rental for the hall to hold the meeting in would be another $1000.

The articles presented for the board's consideration included two which would make it illegal to rake leaves into streets and make it mandatory for residents to clear snow from sidewalks in front of their houses within 24 hours after a snow storm.

Clark said the purpose of these articles was to continue with the town policy of cutting back on unnecessary services provided by the town in the interest of economy. He pointed out in the case of snow clearing, that homeowners would do a better job than the drivers of sidewalk plows because "they know better where the bushes are."

Clark estimated Friday that the cuts could save more than $30,000 in the public works department budget.

Another article called for making the community development director the chief administrator of the zoning bylaw. Now the building inspector is the chief administrator of the law. The change was proposed by Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark so the bylaw would be administered by the department director, who works more closely with the planning board than the building inspector.

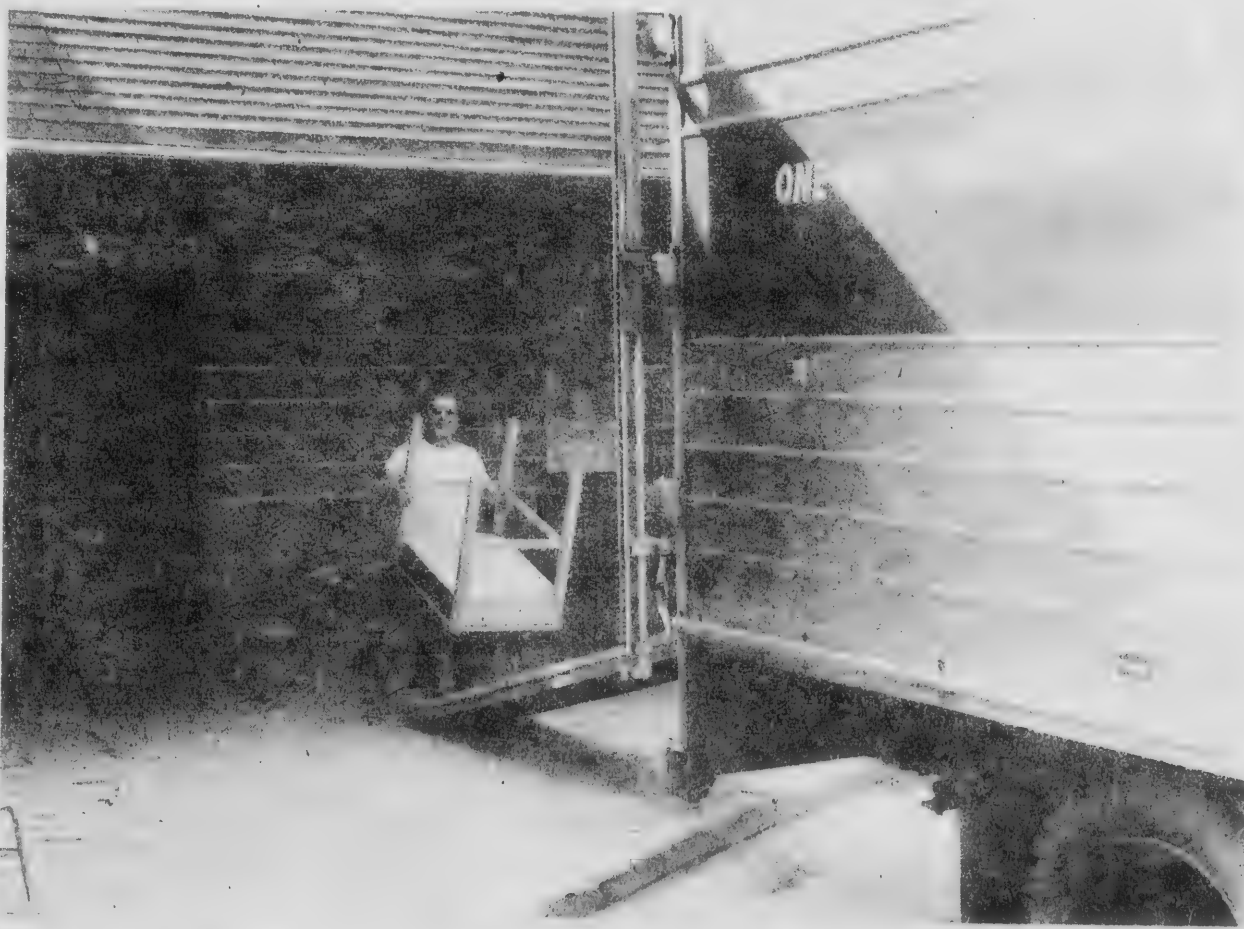

Increasing the number of associate members of the zoning board of appeals from two to four, is to be considered. According to Clark, the board has had trouble getting a quorum for meetings. Selectman James Abramson pointed out that this was because members of the board would have to excuse themselves from hearing appeals on cases to avoid possible conflicts of interest.

A bylaw on soil erosion and sedimentation control was proposed. The bylaw would allow the town to have better control over the excavation of property and so help prevent exposed soil from being washed onto roads and other persons' properties.

Funding for bikeways was proposed. The town has already appropriated $5000 for bikeways, and if it appropriated $20,000 more, it could expect 75 percent of the total spent to be paid back from state reimbursements. The total expenditure to the town would be the $5000 already appropriated. The bikeways would have to run to the schools to make the town eligible for reimbursement.

Other proposed articles include funding participation in a solid waste disposal program; reconstruction of Rec. Park Lodge; a report on Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium; payment of unpaid bills; an appropriation and application for energy conservation funds; and various street acceptances. Other articles may be forthcoming.

Even The Furniture Is Moving

Bancroft school pupils have been shifted around to other elementary buildings while workmen repair the roof. In order to accommodate the pupil-shift, which will last through mid-November, furniture from the school also was moved, with Mel Nicolli filling up a U-Haul truck Tuesday.

School Board To Meet

The school committee will meet in regular session Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room at Stowe School.

This particular meeting, while regularly scheduled, is a mandatory session, town by-laws dictating that the school committee shall meet within the week of the reopening of schools for the year.

They're Ready

Andover school teachers were back in the classrooms Tuesday getting ready for today's first day of classes. Books had to be unpacked, furniture rearranged and bulletin boards set up. The day started with teachers meeting with Supt. Kenneth R. Selfert and other administrators for talks about school system policies for the coming year. And then it was off to the classrooms. Clockwise from above left: Barbara Roulston and Bob Littlefield, fifth grade team teachers at Doherty, review lesson plans; Principal Jack Woodward of South School confers with instructional aide Cheryl Mueller and kindergarten teacher Ruth Stebbins about scheduling; Sheila Whelton, a South first-grade teacher, get supplies out of storage; Mary K. Hervol lays out bulletin boards for her developmental primary class at Doherty; Ann Maida (left) and Dot Pelc unwrap third grade books at Doherty; and Virginia Broe looks through her sixth-grade files, also at Doherty.

The Decision Represents Consistent Action

Much has been written and said these past several days with regard to the school committee decision of a week ago which prohibits three juniors from re-entering Andover High school this week.

They were expelled in June following arrest on drug charges.

They were allowed to petition the school committee for re-entry into the school system on June 6, 1980 — a year from the date the decision was made by the school committee — or at the completion of their court cases.

The cases were heard in Lawrence District Court and following the findings, the three junior classmen petitioned for re-entry into their senior year.

Following receipt of the petitions last week the three members of the school committee present unanimously rejected the petitions, and continued the suspensions for a year, after which they will be allowed re-entry provided they maintain good records, according to Acting Chairman Joseph Finn.

We will not pass judgment on whether or not the decision is harsh.

One thing needs to be stressed, however.

The decision of a week ago represents a consistency of action taken with regard to serious offenses or violations of law on school property.

Not mentioned amid the furor of the past week is similar action taken by the Andover School Committee in June with regard to youth who burned a cross on the high school lawn.

The board suspended the student for a year — the same action it took with regard to the six who were arrested on drug charges.

If the school committee last week were to permit the three juniors to return to class, then certainly the other offenders would be eligible for similar treatment.

The board was criticized for dangling hope in front of the students and parents in the drug related cases.

But, as Finn explained, the board had been cautioned at the hearings in June, prior to the expulsion ruling, that there was a possibility the cases would be thrown out of court.

Thus, the board made its decision to allow for petitioning at the conclusion of the court proceedings.

Based on the court's findings, which apparently substantiated the fact that the students, some of them juveniles, had been involved in drugs at the school, the committee last week said it could find nothing new which would warrant altering their June 6, 1979 decision.

There is therefore, the continued consistency of action by the school committee. The board did leave the opening for a change in its decision, if the court had ruled in ways other than it apparently did.

There is the decision of youth involved in the cross burning.

There remains the possibility that the school committee decision to prohibit the students from classes for a year may still be challenged.

But, to date, the committee's action with regard to Andover's education system and the property under its control, has been one which has treated those involved in major offenses equally.

The school committee is charged with the responsibility of providing a good educational program and environment for the community. It has charge of municipal property valued in the millions of dollars.

Whether one views the decisions made in these specific cases as being harsh, it must also be recognized that the board took such severe action to show that it was aware of its responsibility in dealing with some difficult problems.

To take such action, fully aware that it would not be popular in some quarters displayed a courageous concern for the town's education system.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

The Georgians Who Remain
Stand Fast Around CarterBy Jack Anderson and Joe Spear

WASHINGTON -- Not since Richard Nixon's last days has the White House been under such withering political shellfire. But the Georgians around President Carter remain fiercely loyal to him. They have closed ranks and developed a siege mentality.

Still, two Georgians have pulled out of the front lines. Both Attorney General Griffin Bell and White House counsel Robert Lipshutz have gone back to Georgia. The White House took pains to announce that they were not fired but left voluntarily.

This was true of Bell. But it was not true of Lipshutz. Our White House sources say Lipshutz wanted to stay on as the president's lawyer.

But the president's chief honcho, Hamilton Jordan, began to have misgivings about Lipshutz at the time of the Bert Lance fiasco. Lipshutz cleared the former budget director after reviewing the comptroller's investigation.

Lipshutz encouraged the president to make a public defense of the embattled Bert Lance. This turned out to be poor advice. Lipshutz also mishandled some other political nominations. And he managed to get on the bad side of the powerful speaker of the house, Thomas "Tip" O'Neill.

This might have been enough to land a non-Georgian in the doghouse. But Lipshutz was a trusted member of the president's inner circle. He was loyal; he had a reputation for integrity; and he was a Georgian.

At the time of the big personnel shake-up, say our sources, Hamilton Jordan assured Lipshutz that his job was not in jeopardy.

But one of the new appointees was former New Orleans mayor Moon Landrieu, who was selected to replace Pat Harris as Housing and Urban Development secretary. He was cleared for the job by Lipshutz.

Now Landrieu's nomination may be in trouble. He has been accused of conflicts of interest, and some White House officials believe Lipshutz was not diligent enough in investigating Landrieu.

It was a repetition of Lipshutz's mishandling of the Bert Lance clearance. So Lipshutz was quietly and gently fired. The official statement is false. He did not want to resign.

TENACIOUS WHISTLE-BLOWERS: It has been over a decade since a Pentagon watchdog named Ernest Fitzgerald blew the whistle on a $2 billion cost overrun on the Lockheed C-5A cargo plane. Fitzgerald believed that his first duty was to the taxpayer, but former President Richard Nixon disagreed. His hatchmen fired Fitzgerald.

The Civil Service Commission later forced the Pentagon to take Fitzgerald back. He was given an office and a desk, but little responsibility.

Now, Fitzgerald is fighting back. He has filed a $3.5 million lawsuit against Nixon and three of his former aides. Arrangements already have been made to take Nixon's deposition in early October. Fitzgerald's lawyers have also explored the possibility of taking testimony from Secretary of Defense Harold Brown, who was the secretary of the Air Force when Fitzgerald was given his pink slip.

In his campaign for the presidency, Jimmy Carter frequently cited the Fitzgerald case as an example of what was wrong with the system. But now, even Carter is singing a different song. Fitzgerald's attorneys took Carter at his word and tried to get the whistleblower a responsible job. After a few fruitless discussions with White House aides, they gave up.

Meanwhile, the Justice Department is defending former President Nixon in the lawsuit. Fitzgerald will be picking up his own legal tab.

BIG BAD BEAR: The Russians do not take kindly to anyone who tries to tread on their territory without permission. An example of what happens to uninformed visitors can be found in a top-secret Defense Intelligence Agency document which we have obtained.

On April 2, 1976, a Japanese aircraft was flying a reconnaissance mission over the Sea of Okhotsk, on Russia's east coast. The plane wandered into Soviet air space and a Russian aircraft was dispatched to intercept it. A sophisticated air-to-air missile was fired at the Japanese plane. It barely missed, and the Japanese beat a hasty retreat.

The reason for the violent Soviet reaction, according to the intelligence report, is that the Kremlin is becoming increasingly sensitive to aerial surveillance by the Japanese. The missile was a warning to knock it off.

In short, the Russian bear is very territorial. Anyone who wanders into his hunting grounds must watch out for his claws.

HEADLINES AND FOOTNOTES: Several members of the Carter Cabinet are upset over a Justice Department order that forbids their bodyguards from carrying guns. The Arms Control and Disarmament Agency publishes a map depicting the effects of a nuclear blast on any city in the country, and it's free for the asking. Write to the agency at 21st St. and Virginia Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20451.

GET MORE USE
FROM DINING ROOM

When you stop to think about it, you'll realize that many people have what amounts to a "wasted" room or area in their homes — and that is the dining room.

We say "wasted" because many families use this area just once a day, for the evening meal, or at most twice or three times a day.

But with proper furnishings and planning, the dining room — whether it's a separate room, or an area off the living room — can be utilized more beautifully and more fully.

Perhaps you never thought about it, but you might want to make your dining area become, for instance, a charming second sitting room or a study. One way to do this would be by maybe placing your dining table away from the center of the room and adding the necessary furniture while making better use of the space within the room. Out of habit, many people furnish a dining room simple for eating but it can be more than that.

You might think about using your dining area for games, or for work, or for some other use — and furnish it accordingly. We can help you with ideas, and the furniture for this and all other rooms in your home. Stop in.

Andover Senior League Champions

Andover's 1979 entry in the newly formed Greater Lawrence 16 through 18 year old Senior Babe Ruth League, completed an auspicious season by winning the league championship with a final over record of 15 wins and 6 losses.

The league which is composed of one team each from Chelmsford and Andover, and two teams from Lawrence, played a 21 game schedule extending from June 10 through Aug. 15. Games were played at Chelmsford's Varney Field, Andover's Playstead while the majority of the games were played under the lights at Lawrence's Mark Devlin Field and at the adjacent Stadium 2 complex.

Andover clinched the league championship with a superbly played, ten inning 2-1 victory over runnerup Lawrence Nationals, 13-8. The game was played under the Mark Devlin field lights and was highlighted by the outstanding combined pitching of Frank Pelletier and Bob Heidt, the hitting of Jim Lacourse and Fred Foote and the fielding of shortstop Steve Rathbun.

From Andover's standpoint, the 21-game schedule was divided into three distinctive phases. After losing its opener, Andover proceeded to win seven consecutive games on the strength of excellent pitching, timely hitting and good fielding.

The second phase of the season saw the team immersed in a horrendous hitting and fielding slump, losing five of six games in the process and falling out of first place.

However, the team then proceeded to exhibit its talent character and talent, by winning its final seven games including the final extra inning, 2-1 clincher over the Lawrence Nationals. Outstanding highlights of this relatively young team which included five-16 year olds, five and 17 year olds and four and 18 year olds, were the excellent all around play, base running and hitting of speedster Jim Lacourse who led the team in walks, 26, stolen bases, 17, .372 batting average including three homeruns, eight doubles, three triples, and 12 RBI's, and also in the critical on base percentage category with an incredible 64% statistic.

Brian Kelly batted .297, with 10 of his 19 hits going for extra bases compiling 11 RBI's, eight double and two triples. Bob Heidt, Fred Foote, Bill Eaton, Bill Lucey, Rich Gusmini, Steven Rathbun, Chris O'Hara, Frank Pelletier and Brian Kelly all exceeded a 40% on base average.

The pitching department, the team's most consistent strong point, was highlighted by bob Heait's 5-0 won/loss record combined with an outstanding earned run average of less than 1.20. Frank Pelletier emerged as the league's winningest pitcher with a 7-4 record, with most of his losses incurred during closely contested, low-scoring games against major contenders. Pelletier averaged more than one strikeout per inning through the season. Eddie Powers finished with a 2-1 record, both victories occurring in crucial games at the tail end of the season have existed and/or survived.

In addition to the aforementioned statistics, Andover placed Marty Solomon, Chris O'Hara, Brian Kelly, Jim Lacourse, Frank Pelletier and Bob Heidt on the league's tournament team. All players, except Heidt who was unavailable for tournament play, had starting roles on the team's well contested, double elimination losses in Swampscott.

Defensively, Steve Rathbun, Bill Eaton, Marty Solomon, Chris O'Hara and Frank Pelletier, (O.F. when not pitching), were outstanding throughout most of the season. Doug Awley proved a capable replacement for All-Star Brian Kelly, while Rich Gusmini, Fred Foote, Bill Lucey and Kevin Daly contributed key hits during the 21 game schedule. Sixteen year old Jim Herman, also unavailable during most of the season, displayed the pitching potential necessary for a successful 1980 season.

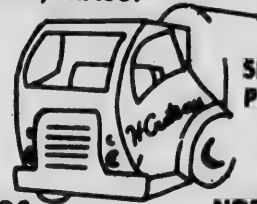

The league champions also exhibited outstanding team speed and aggressiveness, as reflected in the team's stolen bases, hit and run successes and extra bases incurred through head's-up play. The team also possessed a trio of outstanding throwing arms in Frank Pelletier, Bill Lucey and Jim Lacourse, with Pelletier being credited with 3 assists from the right field position.

Andover was managed by Al Pelletier, hal Faigel and Don Rathbun. Special thanks are extended by manager Al Pelletier to the coaching staff for their outstanding attitude, patience and contributions to the team and also to Dick Heidt and Rich Harrison for their support, advice and encouragement.

All Andover youngsters between the ages of 13 and 15, who will not turn 16 prior to August 1, 1980, are eligible.

Candidates are urged to bring cleats to the tryouts.

Andover recently completed its 1979 season, during which time is posted a 20-9 record and battled to the final game of the championship playoffs before taking second to North Andover.

Andover has now won 20 or more games seven straight years.

The local team generally plays between 25 and 35 games per summer, with the season beginning in late May and running through mid-August.

For the past few years Andover has also taken a trip to Montreal, Canada during the first week of July, playing a series of games against Canadian youth teams, visiting the "Man and His World" amusement area, attending a Montreal Expos game, and having use of the swimming pool and football field facilities at the host University of Montreal.

Handling the Fall tryouts will be Rick Harrison and Howie Larrabee. For further information contact Rick Harrison at 475-2007.

dition of Methuen, Tewksbury and Georgetown to the league. Andover's team entry is also in dire need of interested boosters and supporters from both, an organizational and financial aspect.

This type of support is required if the team's success is to be duplicated or enhanced in 1980.

The Division I, Class III and II teams made up of 17 girls ages 10-17 competed both compulsory and optional routines.

During October and November, the girls participated in USGF competition enabling many to compete in the state championships held on Cape Cod in early December.

One of the highlights of every season is the YMCA Northeast Regional Girls Gymnastic Championships. One of the goals of each gymnast is to score in a meet with 30.0 points or more which qualifies her to make this trip. The Regionals were held this year at the Olympic Gymnastic Training Center at Camp Greenkill, N.Y. In April, 12 girls and two coaches travelled by bus with two other local Y teams for a weekend of fun, hard work, friendship and rewarding competition.

The 1979-80 season begins Sept. 11 and 12 with Gym Team Tryouts at the Haverhill Street building, 4:15-6 p.m. Any full privilege girl member who will be eight by Dec. 1, and has passed Level I in floor exercise and apparatus and is interested in the Gym Dandies may participate in these tryouts. All previous team members must attend tryouts also.

Warrior Soccer Chances Look Good

By Rich Harrison

While admitting that the Merrimack Valley Soccer Conference title chase should be a dogfight among as many as five or six teams, most league coaches will also tell you that if anyone has an inside track this year it's Andover High.

"That surprises me a little, but I like it," observed Golden Warriors' Coach Dave Amundsen.

"I Give Andover a slight edge because they have their starting goalkeeper (Jeff Nicastro) back, and they're basically a senior team again this year," explained Chelmsford Coach Italo Agostino.

Andover will officially unveil its 1979 edition this Saturday afternoon at Chelmsford McCarthy Junior High, battling St. John's Prep of Danvers at 2 p.m. in a 36-minute "mini-game" to open the fourth annual MVC Jamboree.

The MVC campaign begins next Tuesday, but AHS has drawn the first bye and won't begin regular season play until Saturday, Sept. 15 when the locals host Tewksbury in an 11 a.m. game at the high school field.

Personnel

The Golden Warriors, coming off a 9-5-2 season which left them third in the Conference standings behind 1978 champ Methuen and perennial powerhouse Billerica High, attracted 60 candidates for this year's squad.

The final cuts have been made, with 44 players remaining to comprise the varsity and JV teams.

However, among that surviving group are just five lettermen and one returning varsity starter.

The key losses from last year's crew are fullbacks Andy Powell and Eric Ketzler, both currently attending the University of Lowell, Dave Yates and Gary Cohen.

The lone returning starter is senior goalie Nicastro, who was primarily responsible for Andover's excellent 1978 goals-against average of 0.81 which included eight shutouts in the 16 games.

However, Andover scored only 23 goals over the same span for an average of just under 1.50 per contest.

"It seems the story of our life the past few seasons has been that we control the ball, holding it in the other team's end for long periods of time, but we have trouble scoring. The only natural goalscorer we've had was Dave Farrell (class of '77)," related Amundsen.

This Fall could be an instant replay, as the Warriors' defense appears solid but the offense is unproven.

Veterans with limited varsity exposure are senior fullback Rob Wilkins, who is also an outstanding high jumper in winter and spring track, and senior midfielder Steve Luby.

Other seniors who have nailed down starting berths are fullback Bill Donovan, fullback Chuck Augello, forward Dave Schroeder, and forward Dave Hotham.

All four have been elevated from a fine JV team, which lost only twice last season in an admittedly weak junior varsity league.

Schroeder also saw some varsity action. Seniors still battling for possible starting positions are halfback Mark Reed, midfielders Paul Hardy and Jeff Barlow, and Andy Kinsky who can play both fullback or midfield.

Kinsky and Reed participated in several varsity games as juniors, while Hardy and Barlow are up from the JV squad.

Juniors & Sophs

The back-up goalies are juniors Brian Butler and Jim Dowe, while other juniors expected to help the varsity are forward Mike Sherman, midfielder Dan Donovan (Bill's brother), midfielder Mark Easton and fullback Kevin Wilson.

A half-dozen very promising sophomore candidates have an outside shot at sticking with the varsity, although most will probably divide their time between the JV and varsity teams.

They are the top products from the West Junior High freshman team, which enjoyed a perfect 11-0-0 season last Fall, and an East Junior High ninth grade crew that had its most successful year ever.

The group of soph standouts is led by midfielder Jason Powell (East), twin brothers Adam and Dan Roberts (West) who are both forwards, midfielder Greg Shionis (Pike School), and fullbacks Yvan Levesque (West) and Paul Thoday (West). One that "got away" was Ken Heydt, a scoring machine who led West to its undefeated season and possessed soccer skills far in advance of his years. He netted 16 goals in the 11 games.

His family moved back to Maryland after a one year stay in Andover.

"I've learned not to get too excited about the prospects until they're actually here and playing for us at the high school," noted Amundsen. "He was a tough one to lose, however."

Evaluation

"Our strengths this year will be desire and depth," stated Amundsen.

"I know the seniors want to make this a good year, and they have done more on their own than any other group I've coached."

"We also have some excellent athletes. Wilkins is a track standout, Luby is a member of the varsity hockey team, and Powell (baseball) may be the best all-around athlete on the team," offered the Golden Warriors' skipper.

"Offensively Mike Sherman is very promising as a soccer, Luby had several goals for us late last season, and Reed has an excellent shot."

Scrimmages

The offense has looked good in two of three pre-season scrimmages thus far, as Andover trimmed B. C. High 3-1 and Lynnfield 2-1 before battling to a disappointing 0-0 tie against North Andover.

A scrimmage with perennial Cape Ann League power Masconomet was rained out, but the Warriors will get their stiffest test tomorrow afternoon when they journey to Wakefield High to face last year's State Division I Tournament runner-up.

Notes

Nicastro, Luby, Wilkins and Bill Donovan are the four captains this year.

This is Amundsen's fourth season at the Andover helm, and in his first three years the Golden Warriors have gone 24-15-9 with a pair of third place finishes and one Eastern Mass. Division I Tournament appearance.

AHS went 6-8-2 in 1976, 9-2-5 in 1977 and 9-5-2 last Fall.

The tourney game was in 1977 and Andover dropped a 2-0 decision to Brockton High.

Walt Marcille will be the JV coach this year, the Warriors' third varsity assistant in four years.

Amundsen feels the MVC race will be among his own team, Billerica, Chelmsford, Methuen and Austin Prep.

superior AHS pass catchers.

Lacourse is a sprinter in track, having placed second in the Class B 50 yard dash last winter, and he is also an excellent baseball player for the Warriors' varsity.

Andover boasts four other lettermen who appear destined to start in the line.

Eric Darby (6', 185), who also worked with the special teams last year, is the top candidate at center and Dan Dellatto (6', 240) has the inside track at one offensive tackle spot.

Two other seniors, Ken Deegan (6', 185) and Joe Lahoud (5'9", 206), are toiling at defensive end and tackle respectively.

Senior Dan Sirois (5'10", 190) and junior Mark Robichaud (6', 195) are working at offensive guard, with senior Ken Hyslip (6', 180) at the other defensive end.

All three saw some varsity time last Fall but are not lettermen.

Four players are battling for the fullback spot, including senior Guy Nicholas (5'11", 170), senior Mike Terrion (5'10", 170), junior Mike Chiklis (5'8", 175) and sophomore Russ Lewis (5'8", 145).

Senior Jim Stamas (6', 165) is the top contender for the other offensive end berth, and he is also a defensive back.

Senior Kevin Daly (6'1", 180) has a good shot at linebacker, while senior Bob Hunter (5'10", 165) has impressed at cornerback.

Leading the deep secondary personnel are Lacourse, junior Glenn McIntyre (5'9", 160) and junior Bob Heidt (5'10", 155).

Junior Wayne Merola (5'6", 145) is the back-up quarterback. "He's not too big but he's tough," noted Collins.

One player who has everything but experience is senior Noel Pizarro, a 6'3", 205-pound first year gridder who has split his pre-season time between offensive end and running back.

"He has all the physical equipment," explained Collins. "He's eager and he's gutsy, but he hasn't played any football before. If he matures very quickly Noel could really help us."

Pizarro has outstanding speed to go with his size. He was the New England 220 yard dash runner-up last Spring.

Kickers

The punting job is up for grabs between Nardone, who did it well last year, and promising sophomore Tom Wilkins.

Junior Mike Reilly, whose brother Pete joins Scott Seero and Silva as the best placekickers in AHS annals, is battling for that job this year.

Nardone, McIntyre and Merola are the others in contention.

Scrimmages

Andover hosted Greater-Lawrence Regional in a pre-season scrimmage last Thursday, and the Golden Warriors traveled to North Andover this past Tuesday for another practice game.

The two outings brought mixed reactions from Collins.

"We didn't do badly against Greater-Lawrence," related the veteran coach. "We made a couple defensive mistakes on their first series of plays and they scored (on a pass), but we had the better of it the rest of the way."

"I was unhappy with the performance against North Andover. When the first stringers were in there they beat us 6-0. We threatened several times but couldn't score."

"I was disappointed with the way North Andover controlled the ball against us, and the way we failed to cash in when we drove down close. Our offensive line was badly out-charged, too," noted Collins.

"However, their coach (Dan Rorke) told me afterward that he expects to have a strong team this year. That should be taken into consideration."

It wasn't all bad news against North Andover.

"Nardone was outstanding on defense, Lacourse made a couple of great catches, and Lewis had a 60 yard touchdown run for us when the second teams were in against one another," observed Collins.

Collins has high hopes for Lewis, the only sophomore currently figuring in the varsity plans.

As for Lacourse: "He reminds me of the Farnhams and Verrette, although it's too early to put him in that class yet."

The Warriors have one scrimmage remaining this Saturday morning, hosting Wellesley High at 10 a.m. at the high school field.

Records

Collins is beginning his 21st season at the Andover helm, and his 25th year of coaching football overall.

His career record at Andover is a flashy 120-60-10, including 85-26-5 in the Merrimack Valley Conference.

Along the way there have been five championships (1966, 1970, 1973, 1974 and 1975), three Super Bowl appearances and two Eastern Mass. Division II titles ('74 and '75), and three undefeated seasons.

Perhaps the most impressive stat of all is that since 1964 AHS has suffered only

Howe Agency Edges Sport Shop

With the regular season championship behind them and a top seeded ranking going into the playoffs, the Howe Agency defeated the Sport Shop in a best three of five final series and clinched its first playoff championship in almost ten years.

The road to the crown was not an easy one for the Agency squad as it took five games to come up with the three necessary victories. The Sport Shop, led by the brilliant pitching of Tom Comparato, took a one game lead early in the series as it defeated Howe 1-0 in ten innings. This opening contest, which some claim was one of the best softball games ever played at the Recreation Park Field, one losing season. In 14 of the last 15 years the Warriors have produced winning teams.

Coaches

The assistant coaches are Bill Vickers (backs), Dick Bourdelais (linemen), Steve Tisbert and George Sullivan (JVs and sophomores), and Bob King (ends and team trainer).

Schedule

Collins expects a veteran Wilmington team and two-time defending champ Chelmsford (which had 153 kids sign up) to be the ones to beat in the MVC this year.

Andover opens regular season play a week from Saturday, Sept. 15, at Wakefield. Last year the Golden Warriors dropped a tough 7-0 decision to the Middlesex League member.

The Conference slate begins Sept. 22 when always-tough Dracut invades Lovely Field for a 1:30 p.m. contest.

Monterey Pine

The Monterey pine, native to eight miles of dry hills on the Pacific Coast, grows so slowly that it remains small. When transplanted to the damp climate of New Zealand and Australia, it becomes the fastest growing timber tree in the world, eight feet a year, Massachusetts Audubon notes.

featured tremendous defense and pitching from both teams. The big blow of the game came with two outs in the top of the tenth inning as Chad Wilson tripled off of pitcher Keith Starks to drive in a runner from first base.

The second game was a complete turnaround from the previous evening as Howe exploded for thirteen runs and soundly defeated the Sport Shop 13-4.

The third contest can be called the turning point of the series as a Bruce Lefebvre triple with two men on and one out in the bottom of the sixth inning ruined Tom Comparato's second bid for a 1-0 victory. Lefebvre's clutch hit resulted in two runs and seemed to stun the Sport Shop. Keith Starks later drove in another run with a sacrifice fly and helped produce a Howe victory by a score of 3-1.

Down two games to one, the Sport Shop was forced to come back with Comparato in the crucial fourth game. Rising to the occasion, the ace pitcher allowed only one run and topped a very good performance by Howe's Chris Fanning. Score of this fourth game was 4-1.

The fifth and final contest of the series belonged completely to Howe pitcher

There's a new shop in town — have you noticed?? It's a consignment shop and in fact, it is almost a year old. The Second Chance Consignment Shop is located at 3 Lupine Road, near the R.R. depot, Andover — where Buyer and Seller meet for the benefit of both!

About a year ago, three Andover tennis players opened this consignment shop, offering to the public clean, up-to-date clothing and household articles in good condition (some antiques) at reasonable prices. Betty Jaffe, Carole O'Connor and Barbara Sonnier invite residents from the area to drop in and get acquainted. You will be amazed at the tremendous bargains and super quality of merchandise offered.

Second Chance Consignment Shop is a boon to young couples setting up an apartment, to families outfitting children for school, for anyone who wants to save money on really excellent quality clothing and articles for the home. They have everything from children's clothing to complete sets of furniture.

Carole, Betty and Barbara are continually searching the entire New England area to bring good buys to the public. They offer seasonal clothing for the entire family, particularly for women and children; household articles such as dishes, glassware, lamps, bric-a-brac, also small tables, small desks, kitchen sets, dining room sets, bedroom sets, chests of drawers, etc. Everything is displayed neatly in four full rooms of merchandise for shopping ease.

Consignors are always wanted for the Second Chance Consignment Shop, now accepting fall and winter clothing and items. Only clean, up-to-date articles in good condition are accepted, and the consignors receive 50% of the sale price. If you are moving out of town or have recently moved here and have items you can't use, call the Second Chance Consignment Shop and they will stop by and give you an appraisal on buying your extra furniture pieces, etc.

Stop in soon and get acquainted with this new shop. The Second Chance Consignment Shop, 3 Lupine Road, Andover, is open Tuesday through Saturday from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. Tel. 475-9666.

Region's Economy Levels Off

The New England economy entered the summer of 1979 operating at a high level, but accumulating evidence indicates that a leveling off is taking place. Non-agricultural employment declined in June for the third consecutive month although the decrease was relatively small. The unemployment rate increased in each of the New England states over the month although the rate for the entire region remained well below the year-earlier value. The average workweek of factory production workers increased slightly but was down from the first quarter averages. Production at the region's factories was changed little over the month and was under the level of the early months of the year. Construction activity as measured by the value of contracts awarded was also down in June and was only slightly above the year-earlier total despite rising construction costs.

New England nonagricultural employment in June totaled a seasonally adjusted 5,338,100 jobs, down 5,700 jobs from May and down 22,500 jobs from the record reached in March of this year. Despite the small job losses which occurred in recent months, the June job total was 117,300 above the year-earlier level. Connecticut was the only state in the region to experience an expansion during June. Employment totals were about unchanged over the month in Massachusetts and New Hampshire and declined on a seasonally adjusted basis in the rest of the region.

However, compared with June 1978 more people were working in all the New England states except Maine and Rhode Island. Manufacturing employment increased by 1,300 jobs during June after declining slightly in the previous two months and amounted to 33,000 more jobs than in June of last year. The June gains in factory jobs were small and widely distributed; an increase in durable goods jobs was sufficient to offset a small decrease in workers producing nondurable goods. Nonmanufacturing activities in New England provided 3,830,600 jobs during June, 7,000 fewer than in May but 84,300 more than a year earlier. Of the major nonmanufacturing industries only services registered a job increase in June.

The average workweek of New England manufacturing production workers increased in June to 40.3 hours, seasonally adjusted, from 40.2 hours in May, as a result of gains in Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. However, fewer hours were worked in all the states than a year ago when the hours worked in the region as a whole averaged 40.9.

The New England unemployment rate increased in June to a seasonally adjusted 5.4 percent of the labor force from 5.1 percent a month earlier. A year ago the jobless rate for June was 6.2 percent; Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont were responsible for the improvement over the year, more than offsetting increases in the unemployment rates of the other states. Changes in the methodology used to calculate state unemployment rates continue to require that caution be used in comparing rates over time.

New England manufacturing output rose slightly during June, reflecting at least in part the small increases in factory employment and the average workweek. The New England manufacturing production index, compiled by the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, increased in June to a seasonally adjusted 140.8 percent of the 1967 base period average from the revised May average of 140.7 percent and 136.4 percent in June 1978. Output of the durable goods industries increased, especially at plants producing electrical and nonelectrical machinery and instruments. These gains offset small but widespread production cutbacks by many nondurable goods industries.

Construction activity in New England, as measured by the value of contracts awarded, declined in June after increasing sharply in May. The unadjusted index for contracts for all types of construction projects averaged 209.2 percent of the 1967 base period average in June compared with 259.3 percent in May and 203.6 percent a year earlier. The largest monthly decrease occurred in contracts for non-building projects; these had received a big boost in May when additional federal funds were made available for such projects as streets, highways and bridges. Contracts for nonresidential construction projects also decreased in June. Compared with a year ago, the value of contracts awarded was higher for residential projects but off for nonresidential projects. Contract awards for residential construction in the region, which are seasonally adjusted, increased 6.2 percent from May to June to total 3.0 percent more than a year earlier.

Consumer prices continued to rise during June, further eroding personal income gains. The Consumer price Index for All Urban Consumers in the United States rose in June to 216.1 percent of the 1967 base period average for a gain of 1.2 percent over the month and 10.9 percent over the year. The largest price increases were for transportation and housing costs including fuels and utilities. An index of consumer prices for June was not available for the Boston area.

Personal income payments to New Englanders increased 1.2 percent during May, the latest month for which regional estimates are available. Some of the May increase may be attributable to the recovery from the trucking industry dispute in April. Over the year income payments in the region increased by 10.4 percent. Retail sales, seasonally adjusted, fell by 3.4 percent in May from the April level. May sales were 8.8 percent higher than a year earlier, a smaller gain over the year than the increase in consumer prices.

In the financial sector of the regional economy, the volume of consumer installment credit outstanding, seasonally adjusted, at a sample of New England commercial banks increased 2.6 percent in June, bringing outstandings to 28.5 percent above the year-earlier total. Outstandings for all major categories of credit increased in the month with the largest relative gain registered for the category made up of home improvement loans, personal loans and other consumer credit.

Herb Remedies

The ancient Greeks, Romans and Europeans reportedly considered herb teas as remedies for colds, flu and nerves. Some of the Roman emperors had botanists in all parts of the empire to gather herbs to be sent back to the capital.

Working Moms

A survey by Kentucky
Fried Chicken's "Time Out" Institute shows that 97 percent of working mothers like their jobs; 88 percent are proud of being working mom's and 84 percent feel they are more stimulating people because they work.

cow bears only one calf
about every three years, and both parents guard it jealously.

COMPARATIVE TAXATION

Your house is for sale. The location is great; the price is right; and the community is desirable. But prospects keep turning it down because they claim the tax rate is too high. How do you meet this obligation?

It just may be that the taxes in your town are actually lower per dollar value than neighboring, less desirable communities. Remember, taxes are not determined by tax rate alone. They're also determined by the valuation practices of the local assessors. In some areas, homes may be assessed at only 25% of true value. In other areas, it may run 50% or 70%. So you must take both the tax rate and the local valuation practice into consideration. Don't be misled by an apparently low tax rate.

This is one of the reasons why it pays to sell your house through a local Realtor. It's his business to be familiar with this vital information. He's an expert negotiator and has the facts to back up his claims.

Duke Ellington Concert To Benefit ABC

Artistic Touch

David Ahouse puts finishing touches on artwork for Ellington concert posters and flyers, which will be distributed throughout the area shortly.

Goodwill Opens New Center

Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries announced that its new attended donation center serving residents of Andover and surrounding area is now in full operation at Atlantic Shopping Plaza, Route 28, North Reading.

The donation center, a brightly painted yellow trailer and appropriately identified, replaces the familiar blue Goodwill collection boxes.

An attendant works at the center Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., to receive donations and prepare the material for processing by handicapped people at Goodwill's rehabilitation workshop. The attendant will give a receipt to donors if requested.

Goodwill has begun the new material collection program for several reasons which include greater donor convenience, and the need for safer, vandal-proof donation centers.

Goodwill has 18 attended donation centers on location and plans for 26 by fall.

Goodwill reports public and shopping center managers acceptance of the centers is excellent.

A special performance by the Duke Ellington Orchestra has been scheduled for Friday, Oct. 5, to benefit the Andover ABC (A Better Chance) program.

This will mark the first appearance of the renowned Ellington group in the Andover area.

The annual concert, which is co-sponsored by The Gillete Company, is the major fund-raising event for ABC. It will be held at the Sheraton Rolling Green Inn from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

Individual tickets will be $12.50 and purchase of a block of 10 will reserve a table. Checks may be sent to Doug Mitchell, concert chairman, at 172 High Plain Road, Andover. Tickets will be mailed to persons who order before Sept. 21 and enclose self-addressed envelopes. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Serving with Mitchell on the committee are Norma Gammon, Sandy Pruneau, Frank Leith, Steve Bahre and Dave Corbett, ABC president.

Andover ABC is an educational program for disadvantaged youths, who live in an ABC residence on Main Street and attend Andover High. Eleven sophomores and juniors arrived in town this week to start school today.

New resident directors this year are Burt and Ina Copeland.
